The screenshot shows the homepage of the California Coastal Commission Public Data Portal. At the top, there is a dark blue navigation bar with the text "California Coastal Commission" in the center. To the left of the center are links for "Meetings", "Services & Programs", and "Learn". To the right are links for "Participate", "Access", and "About". In the top right corner, there is a "Translate" button with a globe icon. Below the navigation bar is a large blue banner with the text "Public Data Portal" in white. Underneath the banner is a white button labeled "User Guides and FAQs". The main content area has a light beige background. At the top of this area is a rounded rectangle containing the text "Search Records" in blue. Below this is a paragraph of text: "Welcome to the California Coastal Commission Public Data Portal. We are pleased to offer public online access to our Coastal Data Management System, where you can view information related to the Commission's local coastal planning, development permitting, and other related activities along California's coast. Currently our online data is limited to Commission actions since approximately 1980. We will be working to add additional historic records and to continually improve our online services as resources allow. We welcome your suggestions and feedback regarding our new online services. Comments may be offered at PublicPortalComments@coastal.ca.gov. Thank you." Below this paragraph is another section titled "What would you like to do today?" with the text "To get started, take a look at our user guides and FAQs linked above or select Search Records below". At the bottom left, there is a section titled "Permits" with a horizontal line underneath it, and "Search Records" is listed as a link below the line.
