

MENDOCINO LAND TRUST

Coastal Access Trails

(from north to south)

Happy Trails!

Kibesillah Trail: 1.25-mile long segment of the California Coastal Trail, for single track bikes and pedestrians. Trail is parallel to Highway One and is found between mileposts 72.15 and 73.55. Parking limited.

Noyo Harbor Viewpoint: A nice place to view the working Noyo Harbor, at N. Harbor Dr.

by Nancy Barth

Hare Creek Beach Trail: 0.7-mile trail to Hare Creek Beach begins at the south end of College of the Redwoods parking lot- travel south to the end of Bay View Dr., and follow trail down to a sandy pocket beach.

Caspar Uplands Trail: This 1.25-mile long trail starts east of Caspar Beach. Park at the beach, walk up the hill, and wind through the southernmost Sitka spruce forest on the west coast. Trail ends near NE corner of Pt. Cabrillo State Park.

Belinda Point Trail: A 1-mile round trip to lovely rocky cove, 0.75 miles south of the Botanical Gardens. Access from Ocean Dr. (north).

Mendocino Bay Viewpoint: West from Highway 1 at milepost 50.03, look right for a brown/white sign. Great picnic spot with views of Mendocino village.

by Ari Mielke

Little River Blowhole Trail: 0.5-mile trail to awesome sinkhole just west of Little River Cemetery, through quiet Bishop Pine forest. Limited parking.

by freeborn32

Navarro Blufflands Trail: 0.5-mile trail; park just north of Navarro Ridge Road and Highway 1, milepost 42.5. Great views of seal haul-out rocks. Good parking.

by Ari Mielke

Navarro Point Preserve and Public Trail: MLT's signature preserve and public trail, with sweeping vistas, 1-mile loop trail, parking. Stunning spring wildflowers.

Peg and John Frankel Trail: This 0.3-mile trail parallels Highway 1, north of Elk. Honors Frankel family for trail leadership throughout USA. Limited parking.

MLT gratefully acknowledges our volunteers, donors, and supporters, as well as the State Coastal Conservancy and California Coastal Commission for their generous support.

For more information on MLT's trails program, please visit our website, www.mendocinolandtrust.org, or call (707) 962-0470.