COASTAL COMMISSION CHAIR'S STATEMENT RE: DIABLO CANYON SHUTDOWN

“This is a big step forward for the California coast, and for our state’s commitment to renewable power generation. Both PG&E and the many dedicated environmental organizations that worked to make this day possible are to be congratulated for this historic agreement. The Coastal Commission looks forward to working with PG&E on public access and a resource protection plan for this critical link in the California Coastal Trail.”

~Steve Kinsey. Chair, California Coastal Commission
