I had a meeting with the Fiesta Island Dog Owners (FIDO) who expressed their opposition to the proposed "Option A", which would convert multi-use public parkland to the exclusive use for the paddlers. They also cited coastal access and environmental justice priorities that are being realized by the current coastal access. FIDO supports the preservation of open space that is free to all and retains the coastal trail on Fiesta Island. They are are supportive of " Option B" and ask the Commission to acknowledge the undefined, but undeniable water access usage by thousands of off-leash dog owners.
