ORDINANCE NO. C-2021-03
AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HALF MOON BAY
AMENDING CHAPTER 18.06.025 "USE REGULATIONS" AND RELATED PROVISIONS OF THE ZONING AND REVENUE AND FINANCE TITLES OF THE HALF MOON BAY MUNICIPAL CODE
RELATED TO SHORT-TERM VACATION RENTALS AND HOME OCCUPATIONS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF HALF MOON BAY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Findings. The City Council of the City of Half Moon Bay hereby amends Chapter 18.06.025 "Use regulations" and related provisions of the Zoning and Revenue and Finance Titles of the Half Moon Bay Municipal Code related to Short-Term Vacation Rentals and Home Occupations ("Short Term Vacation Rental and Home Occupation Ordinance" or "Ordinance"). The City Council finds and declares as follows:

- a) The City of Half Moon Bay is located fully within the California Coastal Zone.
- b) The City of Half Moon Bay's certified Local Coastal Program includes an implementation plan which is in part comprised of the Zoning Ordinance.
- c) Half Moon Bay is a highly desirable destination for coastal tourism. The City has nearly 600 existing rooms in hotel and motel establishments and over 200 campsites accommodating campers and recreational vehicles.
- d) Half Moon Bay also has the highest rate of employed residents who work from home in San Mateo County and home occupations are an important means of employment in the City.
- e) The City Council seeks to support lower-cost visitor serving uses, including accommodations, and coastal access pursuant to the California Coastal Act and its Local Coastal Program, while also providing opportunities for income generating uses in areas that are already developed.
- f) The City Council further seeks to protect neighborhood integrity.
- g) The City Council has identified affordable housing as a multi-year priority and directed that existing housing stock be preserved for residential use.
- h) More than one hundred short-term vacation rentals have operated within the city limits without benefit of compatible use regulations and registration requirements.
- i) Short-term vacation rental use has in some cases eliminated residential use of dwelling units, especially those used as "whole house" or unhosted operations, and thereby reduced housing stock.
- j) The operation of some short-term vacation rentals has caused significant disruption within various neighborhoods and required repeated code enforcement efforts; however, absent compatible use regulations and registration requirements, enforcement has not always resulted in sustained improvement.

- k) City research of the short-term vacation rentals operating within the city limits concludes that short-term vacation rentals with direct oversight from the property owner and/or long-term tenant operate more compatibly within their surrounding neighborhood and tend to be lower-cost.
- l) Short-term vacation rentals and home occupations can be conducted so as to safeguard neighborhood integrity, promote coastal access, and protect coastal resources.
- m) Many other cities, including cities within the coastal zone, have implemented short-term vacation rental regulations by imposing a primary residence requirement to ensure better local oversight and neighborhood compatibility.
- n) Many other cities, including cities within the coastal zone, have implemented short-term vacation rental regulations that limit the number of overnight stays per year for “whole house” or unhosted short-term vacation rental operations because unlimited and/or predominate use of residential dwelling units as unhosted short-term vacation rentals diminishes, and in some cases leads to discontinuance of, the primary use of the residence as a dwelling unit and thereby reduces local housing stock.
- o) Many other cities, including cities within the coastal zone, have implemented short-term vacation rental regulations that do not limit the number of overnight stays for hosted short-term vacation rental operations in part because hosted short-term vacation rentals are maintained as residential dwelling units which is the intended primary use for residential development and maintenance of local housing stock.
- p) The San Mateo County 21 Elements collaborative group supports housing policy in San Mateo County and has identified that primary residence requirements and disallowing short-term rental use of accessory dwelling units are effective regulations for preserving housing stock for residential use.
- q) The Ordinance is consistent with the California Coastal Act and Half Moon Bay’s certified Local Coastal Land Use Plan which includes policies addressing residential land use compatibility, the preservation of housing stock, short-term vacation rentals, home occupations, and coastal access provisions relative to infrastructure capacity and the need for lower cost visitor serving accommodations, specifically:

Policy 2-7. Housing Stock Preservation. Safeguard existing housing stock so that it is preserved and used as full-time housing through the establishment of programs and ordinances.

Policy 2-72. Residential Land Use Compatibility. Ensure that development, including a change in intensity of use, in residential land use designations avoids impacts on the residential living environment and the adjacent land uses, including proximate agricultural and agricultural compatible land uses, with respect to noise, lighting, parking, loading, and aesthetics. Consider other aspects of non-residential uses permitted in residential land use designations that may be impactful on a neighborhood setting or the adjacent land uses and require strategies to avoid such impacts.

Policy 2-75. Home Occupations. Permit home occupations within residences for business types and activities that are compatible with the residential living environment and subservient to the primary residential use of each property. Establish performance standards in the IP for traffic, parking, noise, and other considerations with respect to home occupations.

Policy 2-76. Short-Term Rentals. Allow short-term rental businesses within the established neighborhoods. Short-term rental uses should be subordinate to primary residential uses such that residential units continue to be used for long-term residential occupancy. Establish land use regulations in the IP with performance standards necessary to protect coastal resources and the residential living environment of the neighborhoods, such as standards for property management, traffic, parking, noise, and trash. Short-term rental businesses shall pay transient occupancy tax to the City. Non-permanent housing such as for seasonal farmworker housing and short-term boarding for researchers and others employed or otherwise affiliated with agricultural uses are not short-term transient lodging facilities or uses and are not subject to transient occupancy tax.

Policy 5-1. Maximum Coastal Access and Recreational Opportunities. Provide maximum coastal access and recreational opportunities for all people consistent with public safety needs and the need to protect public rights, rights of property owners, and natural resource areas from overuse.

Policy 5-70. New Overnight Accommodations. Consider the carrying capacity of the coast, visitor demand over a range of affordability levels for various accommodation types, and consistency with all applicable LCP and General Plan policies before approving any new overnight accommodation development proposals. Prioritize lower-cost visitor-serving accommodations over higher-cost lodging.

- r) The Ordinance is further consistent with Half Moon Bay's certified Local Coastal Land Use Plan which requires careful oversight of infrastructure capacity and resource management.
- s) The Ordinance is further consistent with Half Moon Bay's certified Local Coastal Land Use Plan which provides for accessory uses in residential development in substantially developed Planned Development areas including home occupations.

- t) The Ordinance is further consistent with the California Coastal Act and Half Moon Bay's certified Local Coastal Land Use Plan, in that it includes mechanisms to ensure protection of coastal resources.
- u) The Ordinance is consistent with the City of Half Moon Bay certified Housing Element, which contains programs to preserve housing stock.
- v) The Ordinance supports short-term vacation rental operations throughout the City as one of many available accommodation types. The City currently has significant visitor-serving capacity, including camping, RV parks, and hotels of every class, from economy to luxury. Short-term vacation rentals, as part of this broader portfolio of accommodations, will continue to support lower-income visitors as well as visitors seeking diversity with respect to accommodation type and location.
- w) The Ordinance supports lower cost visitor serving accommodations through broad allowances for hosted short-term vacation rentals, which have been found through review of rental listings to offer some of the lowest cost lodging rates in Half Moon Bay, as explained in the materials; while continuing to provide for higher cost accommodations for un-hosted and higher occupancy short-term vacation rentals that conform to the Local Coastal Land Use Plan policies as implemented through the standards contained in the ordinance for these more intense uses of residential properties.

Section 2. Amendments. The following sections of the Municipal Code are amended as specified below and in Attachment A. Attachment A generally shows additions with underlined text and deletions with ~~strike-out text~~.

Municipal Code Provision	Action
Section 18.06.025	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.02.040	Definitions show in Attachment A to be inserted in alphabetical order
Section 18.06.020	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.07.020	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.07.025	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.08.020	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.08.025	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.15.025	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.16.025	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 18.16.030	Amendments as shown in Attachment A
Section 3.12.020	Amendments as shown in Attachment A

Section 3. Severability. If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by a decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance. The City Council hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance and adopted this Ordinance and each section, sentence, clause or phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more section, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 4. CEQA. The City Council finds that the Ordinance is exempt from CEQA under CEQA Guidelines sections 15301 (existing facilities), 15305 (minor alterations to land use limitations) and 15061(b)(3) (common sense exemption). The City currently permits short-term vacation rentals and home occupations to operate in the City. Prior to restrictions resulting from the COVID-19 pandemic, approximately 80-100 short-term vacation rentals were operating in the City. The City would expect these short-term vacation rentals to return as pandemic-related restrictions ease. During COVID-19 restrictions, home occupations have likely increased. The proposed amendments restrict and regulate short-term vacation rental uses. Consequently, a modest decrease in short-term vacation rental activity, as well as any related environmental effects, is reasonably anticipated as a result of these amendments. The amendments to the Home Occupation provisions do not involve a change in land use or density. As it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the amendments may have a significant effect on the environment, the common sense exemption applies.

Section 5. Regular Reviews. In order to ensure monitoring and management of the potential depletion of housing stock and impacts on neighborhood integrity that may be caused by short-term vacation rentals, the City of Half Moon Bay shall evaluate the number of short-term rentals operating in each neighborhood and in the City as a whole six (6) months and twelve (12) months after certification of the Ordinance by the California Coastal Commission, and annually thereafter.

Section 6. Publication. The City Clerk of the City of Half Moon Bay is hereby directed to publish this Ordinance pursuant to Government Code section 36933.

Section 7. Effective date. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force on the thirtieth (30th) day from and after its final passage and upon certification by the California Coastal Commission.

v. That consent to an inspection is not provided.

i. The City Manager or his or her designee may issue either a notice of pending revocation or a notice of suspension pending revocation, the latter of which shall require immediate suspension of all short-term vacation rental activity pending a final determination regarding revocation. Any notice of suspension shall explain why the short-term vacation rental activity presents an immediate, serious threat to human health or public safety. The notice shall detail the grounds for potential revocation of the permit and allow thirty calendar (30) days for submission of a written statement and/or supporting documentation disputing such grounds.

ii. The City Manager's or his or her designee's determination shall be made not more than thirty calendar (30) days after the deadline for submittal of documentation provided on the notice.

iii. All notices and determinations shall be mailed to the operator, the property owner (if applicable), and the responsible party (if applicable).

iv. The community development director is authorized to issue administrative guidelines to further define procedures for making revocation determinations.

c. Appeals: If the registration is revoked, the operator shall have the right to appeal the decision as follows:

i. The appellant must file a notice of appeal with the City Clerk within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of the revocation decision.

iv. The hearing may be continued from time to time upon mutual consent. At the time of the hearing, the appealing party and the City Manager or his or her designee may present such relevant evidence as he or she may have relating to the determination from which the appeal is taken.

v. Chapter 18.02 Definitions

Section 18.02.040 Definitions

The following definitions shall be inserted in alphabetical order:

“Hosting Platform” means a person, legal entity, or an association of individuals that provide a means, which may or may not be internet-based, through which a short-term vacation rental is offered to the public, in exchange for a fee or other compensation. A hosting platform generally has the following attributes: allows a host to advertise a short-term vacation rental, and provides a means to arrange and enter into agreements to occupy short-term vacation rentals, whether payment of rent is made directly to the host or through the hosting platform.

“Primary residence” means residential property at which a person resides a majority of the time, carries on basic living activities, and the place he or she usually returns to, in the event of travel. Evidence, such as motor vehicle registration, voter registration, a homeowner’s exemption on the property tax bill, long-term lease of the residential property, or other similar documentation, may be required by the City to determine whether the property is the primary residence. For a renter-occupied property, a long-term tenant must have resided for a majority of time on the property for at least two years prior to initiating short-term vacation rental use.

“Short-term vacation rental” means a residential or mixed-use property that contains a dwelling unit or habitable portion thereof that is offered for hire for transient occupancy for periods of thirty days or less as a use that is incidental to the principal residential use of a dwelling unit or property. Non-permanent housing such as for seasonal farmworker housing and short-term boarding for researchers and others employed or otherwise affiliated with agricultural uses are not short-term transient lodging facilities.
