AB 3 \(Zbur\) Offshore wind energy: reports

This bill requires the Energy Commission to develop a plan related to seaport readiness for offshore wind energy development, in consultation with the State Lands Commission and the Coastal Commission by January 1, 2026. The report will include recommendations for the ports best suited for supporting offshore wind energy developments and in-state workforce opportunities, including opportunities for low-income and environmental justice communities, by January 1, 2026. A second report, due by July 1, 2027, will analyze the feasibility of achieving 70% and 85% in-state assembly and manufacturing of offshore wind energy projects in consultation with CDFW, OPR, the Governor’s Office of Business and Economic Development, and the California Workforce Development Board to the list of consulting agencies.

SB 4 \(Wiener\) Planning and zoning: housing development; higher education and religious institutions

This bill provides that a housing development project that is 100% available to lower income and moderate income households would be a use by right on any land owned by an independent institution of higher education or religious institution that was in their ownership prior to January 1, 2024, if the project meets objective zoning standards, the applicant hires skilled and trained labor, and is located within ½ mile of a major transit stop, a high quality corridor, or within one block of a car-share vehicle. Up to 5% of the housing may be available to staff of the institution if made available at an affordable rate. Projects will be eligible for density bonus, incentives, waivers of development standards, and parking ratios. Sites that contain cultural resources are disqualified if the impacts cannot be mitigated. The bill will sunset on January 1, 2036.

SB 286 (McGuire) Offshore wind energy projects

This bill designates the State Lands Commission (SLC) as the CEQA lead agency for all offshore wind projects. It would also create the Offshore Wind Energy Resiliency Fund in the State Treasury, and establish the Offshore Wind Energy Fisheries Working Group which the Coastal Commission will convene with SLC, the Ocean Protection Council, the Department of Fish and Wildlife, federal agencies, representatives of the fishing industry, and other stakeholders as appropriate. The working group will be required to develop a statewide strategy by January 1, 2026 to ensure the avoidance, minimization and/or mitigation of impacts to ocean fisheries, establish compensation for commercial and recreational fishers for economic impacts, and develop best practices for monitoring, communications and engaging affected communities. Amendments of 05/18/23 add tribal and labor representatives to the working group, and expand the focus of the working group to include tribal interests and environmental resources. Amendments of 08/14/23 clarify that public participation must not be impaired by the consolidated permit process, and that the Commission shall determine the number of participants on the working group. Amendments of 09/01/23 clarify that compensatory mitigation for impacts must be "reasonable."

SB 423 (Wiener) Land use: streamlined housing approvals: multifamily housing developments

This bill expands the existing process for the by-right, ministerial approval of qualified multifamily housing projects. Most relevant to the Coastal Commission, the bill would repeal the provision in existing law that precludes the streamlined approval process from applying in the coastal zone. The effect of this would be that a qualifying multifamily housing project would be approved by-right and not subject to a coastal development permit if it provides a specific percentage amount of affordable housing and meets the applicable objective standards. Amendments of 05/23/23 preclude the streamlined approval from applying in equestrian districts; require a labor contract for projects over 85 feet in height; add the requirement for local governments to hold a public meeting within 45 days of receiving a notice of intent to file an application; and extend the current sunset date to January 1, 2036. Amendments of 06/30/23 make minor changes to the calculation for affordability, percentage of affordable units, and application of density bonus credits. Amendments of 08/14/23 would exempt areas that are vulnerable to 3' of sea level rise from the provisions of the bill. Amendments of 09/01/23 specify that the bill's streamlined approval process would not apply in the following areas of the coastal zone:

- Areas lacking a certified LCP, except for those with a certified LUP
- Areas subject to 5' of sea level rise
- Areas between the first public road and the sea
- Lands less than 300' from a bluff edge
- Within 100' of a 1-parameter wetland
- Parcels with prime coastal agricultural soils
- Parcels not zoned for multifamily housing

Projects funded by the bond will be considered a use by-right, and subject to objective planning standards and expedited permitting. The measure would be placed before the voters at the March 5, 2024, statewide primary election.

This bill requires the Energy Commission and the Ocean Protection Council, in consultation with the Coastal Commission and other departments, to conduct a study to evaluate the feasibility and benefits of ocean wave and tidal energy by February 1, 2024. The study shall provide findings about the feasibility of deploying wave and tidal energy, evaluate the need for transmission planning and workforce development, identify suitable sea space for tidal and wave energy, and develop a monitoring strategy to evaluate impacts to marine and tidal ecosystems and wildlife. Amendments of 06/30/23 require the Energy Commission to consider wave and tidal energy projects as part of the investment planning process for the Electric Program Investment Charge program. Amendments of 09/05/23 make the identification of suitable sea space a separate multiagency effort separate from the required study.

SB 684 (Caballero) Land use: streamlined approval processes: development projects of 10 or fewer residential units on urban lots under 5 acres

This bill requires by-right, administrative approval of parcel maps for up to 10 units on parcels up to 5 acres in size that meet certain siting criteria, including that the parcel be within 500 feet of a site zoned to an allowable density of 30 units or fewer per acre. The bill also requires a local agency to issue a building permit for a housing development project on a site proposed to be subdivided under the bill if the applicant meets certain requirements. The bill restricts a local agency to imposing only objective local standards on development proposed on parcels subdivided under the provisions of the bill, though no objective standard may preclude developments from meeting specified density standards, be more restrictive than the standard that would otherwise apply in the underlying zone, would require setbacks between units, or require enclosed parking. Amendments of 09/01/23 limit the provisions of the bill to parcels zoned for multi-family residential use. Amendments of 09/07/23 limit the bill's application in unincorporated areas to counties with a population greater than 600,000; specify that parcels ministerially developed under the bill are not subject to the existing process for ministerial permitting of ADUs; and exempt equestrian zones from the bill's provisions.

This bill amends the Coastal Act to specify that new or expanded oil and gas facilities shall not be considered a coastal-dependent industrial use and may only be permitted if found to be consistent with Chapter 3. The bill also adds statutory findings to the Coastal Act encouraging existing ports to pursue development contributing to offshore wind energy generation, and encouraging the Commission to receive technical advice with regard to offshore wind energy generation. Amendments of 06/20/23 authorize repair and maintenance of an oil and gas facility as a coastal-dependent industrial use if it does not result in an expansion of the facility, as well as development for the purpose of producing low-carbon fuels at existing refineries.
